Nathan Clark (He/Him)

Technical Analyst

I am Nathan Clark, a Technical Analyst specializing in agile project development and coding, currently leading a significant healthcare project as an intern at i.c.stars, where I excel in team coordination and innovative problem-solving.

Experience

August 2023 - December 2023

i.c.stars

Business, Leadership & Technology intern - Technical Analyst

Currently engaged in a 16-week immersive team project utilizing Agile methodologies to spearhead the development of an internal application. This project is in collaboration with a cross-functional team of four and is focused on delivering a sophisticated solution for a leading medical supplier, manufacturer, and distributor. The primary goal is to design, store, and visualize employee scorecards, contributing to enhanced performance evaluation and management within the organization.

Beyond my project responsibilities, I actively contribute to the success of i.c.stars through various key roles. I manage the cycle's calendar, ensure seamless communication by disseminating timely updates to interns, and coordinate impactful events. Leveraging my coding expertise, I've earned recognition as a leader within the organization. I frequently serve as the go-to resource for my colleagues when they face coding challenges, demonstrating my passion for teaching and providing valuable assistance.

October 2021 - December 2022

Dunkin'

Crew Member

I provided excellent customer service by greeting customers, taking orders, and accurately processing transactions using a cash register. I prepared and served food and beverages, such as coffee, donuts, sandwiches, and bagels. I followed food safety and quality control procedures, including checking product expiration dates, monitoring inventory levels, and reporting any issues or discrepancies to management. I communicated effectively with team members and management, supporting a positive work environment and demonstrating a commitment to teamwork and collaboration.

January 2021 - September 2021

Albanese Candy Factory

Retail Sales Associate

I assisted customers with inquiries and orders. I processed orders, payments, and returns in a timely and accurate manner, ensuring customer satisfaction. I contributed to a positive work environment by demonstrating strong teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills, as well as a commitment to quality and continuous improvement. I maintained a clean and organized work area.
